Notes on field contents

The order and occurrence of subfields is to some extent mandatory:

- at least one subfield $c or $d is mandatory if field is present;
- a subfield $b may occur only if at least one subfield $c or $d is entered;
- a subfield $e may occur only if at least one subfield $d is entered;
- a subfield $e may immediately follow only a subfield $d, $e or $f;
- a subfield $f may occur only if at least one subfield $c or $e is entered;
- a subfield $f may immediately follow only a subfield $c, $e or $f.

The degree of detail of the field may vary according to the local practice, e.g. all instruments employed in an orchestra may or may not be specified (EX 2-3, 9, 18). The most common example of non-detailed indication are percussion instruments in ensemble: sometimes only a close analysis of the score makes it possible to specify all instruments; in such cases the indication will more likely be limited to the number of percussion players (EX 13).

Subfield $b should be used in place of subfield $c to differentiate soloist(s) in opposition with accompanying voice(s)/instrument(s), etc. (entered in $c) or ensemble(s) (entered in $d) or their arranged version (EX 2-3, 5-7, 18-20).

If there is no distinction, enter all in $c.

If detailed, instruments/voices, etc. being part of ensembles entered in $d are always coded in $e.

In subfield $d, character positions 5-6 may be used to indicate the number of real parts of the ensemble. If used to code more than one ensemble, positions 5-6 may be used only if all the ensembles have the same parts (e.g. for two choirs for four mixed voices code 02cmi04##); if parts vary, code ## (EX 6).

As an alternative, field $d may be repeated for each ensemble (EX 14).

In case of repeated subfield $d, subfields $e must be entered after each related subfield $d (EX 4-9, 14, 21).

Subfield $f may be used to specify individual instruments from a generic code used in $c or $e, e.g. the specific instruments coded as percussion in $c. Each series of $f must immediately follow the related subfield $c or $e. (EX 13, 21, 22).

It is recommended to use subfield $h to specify the number of real parts only when it differs from that of players entered in $i, or when the number of players cannot be determined (EX 2, 5-9, 14, 20).

In subfields $h and $i, the code "a" in position 3 must be used by default to indicate the total number of parts and players when the musical work is vocal a cappella music or when it is instrumental music (EX 1-2, 9-12, 14-17, 19-20).

CODE LISTS

Code lists are maintained and updated by IAML (International Association of Music Libraries, Archives and Music Documentation Centres).

The lists show a definition term and several other terms using the same code, without distinction between:

- similar instruments, voices or devices having the same code;
- definition in other language(s);
- orthographical variants.

Chronological, organological or language specifications are added in brackets if strictly necessary. The pitch of the instruments is specified when necessary (e.g.: A, Bb, F).

A: codes for subfields $b-$e, positions 2-4

Pertinence of instruments to “families” in code lists is specified by the first character of the three-letter code.

Instruments needing a code in pos. 5-8 are shown only when they have a specific name in any language.

1. Voices
2. Woodwinds
3. Brass instruments
4. Strings, bowed
5. Strings, plucked
6. Keyboard
7. Percussion
8. Electric / electronic instruments and devices
9. Miscellaneous, other, unspecified instruments
10. Choruses
11. Orchestras, ensembles
